

PracticeOne is looking for experienced Medical Software Trainers to train clinical staff and physicians on PracticeOne Practice Management and Electronic Health Record application through trainer led web-based instruction and at practice site.

Interested candidates must have experience working in a medical office environment as well as 2+ years practical experience as a software trainer.

Excellent opportunities exist for professionals experienced in this type of software training. Candidates must demonstrate the ability to deliver clinical application training and have knowledge of clinical workflow. Must have superior customer service skills and be proficient in Microsoft Office. Ability to travel is a must.

Please email your resume and salary requirements to P1HR@practiceone.com