PracticeOne Selected to Provide Automation Solutions to the Family Health and Help Center Community Health Center

Monday September 22, 3:15 pm ET

SOMERSET, NJ--(MARKET WIRE)--Sep 22, 2008 -- PracticeOne is pleased to announce that the Family Health and Help Center (FHHC) of Rockville, IN has selected PracticeOne's e-Medsys Solutions Suite to automate their Community Health Center.

Specifically, FHHC will utilize the e-Medsys EHR and the e-Medsys PM, both in ASP format.

Susie Waymire, FHHC Executive Director stated, "A number of different solutions were reviewed and after consideration and deliberation, selected e-Medsys from PracticeOne. Their solutions are easy to use, share a single database, and include many features for which other vendors were charging extra."

Ms. Waymire went on to remark, "We also liked the option of going ASP or Client Server and decided that ASP for our CHC would be the preferred format. We will not have to deal with maintaining our own server, upgrading hardware, and worrying about backups. Plus, we like that our providers can securely access the system from any internet connection."

"PracticeOne is extremely pleased to have been selected by FHHC as their automation solutions partner," said Sheryl Miller, PracticeOne SVP of Sales and Business Development. "FHHC does really great work with their community, and we look forward to working with Ms. Waymire and the entire FHHC staff in helping to bring their Community Health Center to new levels of practice management and electronic health records efficiency."
